TERMS & CONDITIONS

The Croupier will not compete in the game.

The Croupier will only be responsible for determining the winner based on the fictional value of the chips provided during the game.

Under no circumstances will The Gidley or Croupier charge a 'rake' or commission in the event patrons decide to play for prizes.

A discretionary 10% service charge is added to food and beverage served in the Library. Please advise your waiter if you wish for this to be removed from your bill.

CROUPIER

A Croupier (dealer) is the person in charge of a gaming table, responsible for gathering in and distributing out playing chips.

You don't need to take the game as serious as us but if you do, your professionally trained croupier will keep everything above board, the drinks flowing and your game finishing on time.

DEALING

The croupier will be responsible for keeping the game fair and moving along. Details of the game including the rules, blind and total prizepool will be announced at the beginning of the game.

If anyone is a novice, the rules can be explained and a run-through of the game will be demonstrated at the beginning on request.

ORDERING BEVERAGES

Drinks will be delivered to your seat. We'll try not to bother you during the game so please advise the croupier when you want beverage service.
